SUMMER 2013

Wow! This year is quickly progressing, isn't it? Perhaps many of you have already begun the transition from spring mode to summer mentality (cottage/trailer preparation, holiday planning etc.). For many Aboriginal people this season becomes an opportunity to get out on the land and experience the Creator's handiwork for an Extended period of time.

Aboriginal Life Has Changed

The nomadic days of following the herd, school or flock of various wildlife, fish or fowl has long since been replaced with domestic lifestyles consisting of 9 to 5 occupations, Monday to Friday, with the shadow of overtime seemingly constantly looming.

A lot has changed within the Aboriginal community and yet, there is a lot that has remained the same. With almost a 500 year old history of exchange and interaction, that began with early European settlers, some statistics suggest that less than 5% to 10% of First Nations profess a saving knowledge in Jesus Christ! The Inuit have had almost 900 years of exposure from visitors from "other lands" and the Christian statistics are similar.

It goes without saying that we need to do a better job of reaching the Aboriginal for Christ. Jewish and Aboriginal history actually track similar paths of sorts with both having humble tribal/clan beginnings coupled with centuries of hardship and persecution, being displaced from their land. Yet, both have maintained a unique identity and culture that really can only be fully realized through a Christ redeeming encounter.

Through Aboriginal Bible Academy and the partnerships and networks that have and are being established, solid biblical training is being made accessible in increasing measure for not only our existing Aboriginal leadership but the next generation of leaders as well. We continue to build traction across Canada. There is a swell of growing interest and hunger for teaching and training, and thanks to your prayers and support, we are able to assist in the development of solid Aboriginal leaders from coast - to coast to coast!

What's Been Happening

Back in late March our Director was invited to spend a few days up in the small community of North West River, Labrador (near Goose Bay) to preach and share about the Academy and the opportunities that are available for ongoing discipleship and bible study.

A wonderful time was had in meeting several Innu of the neighboring Sheshatshiu community that attend the church in North West River.

Pastor Andrew & Patsy McAuley have been faithful servants in this area for 30 years! The people of these two neighboring communities are being served well and we look forward to a continued partnership with the McAuley's as they cast vision for discipleship training in this area of Labrador's north.

What Lays Ahead

Although the summer months typically slow down, these next couple of months are shaping up to be a bit more busy then usual.

Late June/early July could see a quick trip to Manitoba to connect with Aboriginal leaders (further details to follow in our fall newsletter). The rest of July brings a couple of visits to summer camps within the southern Ontario area that will be hosting Missions Emphasis Sundays. A potential trip up into northern Quebec in August is on the horizon for a possible Quebec Native Council gathering. Under the leadership of Rev. Johnny Dixon, essential vision for ongoing training and equipping in leadership development is being

Conferences! Conferences!

Back in early May our Academic Director, Dan Collado attended a couple of PAOC district conferences (EOD & WOD). They were wonderful opportunities to network, reconnect and forge new relationships regarding innovative and ongoing ministry initiatives within the Aboriginal Community here in Ontario.

Later in the same month a quick trip to Niagara Falls, NY was made to "pop in" on the Native American Fellowship Convocation. Again, it was a wonderful occasion to connect with key persons regarding theological training at various levels.
